

A NOTE ON JASMINUM DIVERSIFOLIUM VAR. GLABRICYMOsum

CLARENCE E. KOBUSKI

IN A RECENT LETTER, Mr. B. O. Mulligan of the Royal Horticultural Society's Gardens at Wisley, kindly drew my attention to an error made in the Jour. Arnold Arb. 20: 404. 1939. To my chagrin, this error is the result of a "lapsus calami" made in recording incorrectly (Jour. Arnold Arb. 13: 149. 1932) a combination of Sir William Wright Smith's. I am very grateful to Mr. Mulligan for his interest in this matter and I am presenting below a revised treatment of the variety in question.

Jasminum diversifolium Kobuski var. glabericymosum (W. W. Smith), comb. nov.

Jasminum heterophyllum Roxburgh var. glabericymosum W. W. Smith in Notes Roy. Bot. Gard. Edinburgh, 12: 209. 1920.

Jasminum heterophyllum Roxburgh var. glabericymbosum Kobuski in Jour. Arnold Arb. 13: 149. 1932, lapsus calami pro "glabericymosum."

Jasminum diversifolium Kobuski var. glabericymbosum Kobuski in Jour. Arnold Arb. 20: 404. 1939, lapsus calami pro "glabericymosum."
