JAMES VICK, SEEDSMAN,

Rochester, N.Y. March 22 1888

Geo. E. Davenport,
Dear Sir,

Yours of 30th inst. at hand. I send as you request some more Copies of March Mag.
Am pleased to know that it is satisfactory to you. I regretted that your name could not appear on the illustrated page, but it was so full there was no room left.
But of course no one can fail to perceive that the whole contribution is yours. No payment is desired for extra copies - you are welcome to all you may want. Beside I have taken a few impressions of them, and of Dr Gray's Portrait on a large-sized sheet suitable for framing. If you would like copies of these I will send them. Now as to the Cash in hand — I will have the Rose sent that you mention.

I presume you have the Baltimore Belle and the Queen of the Prairie or you would not make choice of Seven Sisters in preference to them — as they are the really desirable ones. Please say what more to send you for the money, if there is anything you wish, or I will return it.

Yours
Very truly,
C. W. Seelye.
