

Tuesday 3 Dec

Dear Deane

We are very sorry that Mrs Deane can't come, but we are much pleased to know that you will be here. Perhaps, late in the morning, Mrs Deane may decide that our informal little luncheon at half past one will rest her. It would much delight us to see her with you.

Professor de Vries is a very charming man whom we all like very much. We want all of our botanists to have another chance to meet him.

Yours faithfully

G. D. Goodall

Tuesday Dec 3

Dear Deane

I am asking a few botanists and their wives to meet Professor de Vries, informally at luncheon at half past one o'clock today. It will give Mrs.
Goodale and me very great pleasure if you and Mrs Deane can come.
It is a so-called "Stand-up" luncheon, and most informal.
Do come, both of you + greatly obliged Yours sincerely

G. V. Goodale
