Mr. Walter Deane,

Dear Sir:

Your late letter received also enclosed postal note for which receive my thanks. I am sorry some of the plants got damaged. I will replace ^{them} if you will let me know what ones they are. I sent a larger package to Prof. L. H. Bailey packed in the same way. He says, - "The plants are at hand in good shape". I am very sorry yours were not in the same condition, I will try to do better next time.

Yours truly
Oliver A. Farwell
