

Feb. 18, 1916
Detroit, Mich.

Dear Mr. Deane:

I am sending you to day, after much delay, some Ceanothus sanguineus which I hope will reach you safely. I have packed up all my belongings and have put them in storage for an indefinite period or until I can find a permanent place of abode.
How long that will be I can not say.

Sincerely yours
Oliver A. Farwell
