

317 La Martinière St

Lamarian Plain Oct 15. 94

My dear Mr Deane

Your kind note is received.

I do not feel any ill effects from the trip of Saturday. This morning I went for my box via W. Quincy and had a very pleasant time. Although the walk from W. Quincy station to the swamp & back was pretty cold and windy, the scenery was delightful in the woods. It could not have been better. The box lay just where I left it in the grass where we loaded up for the return trip Saturday.

It was not visible 10 ft off, an accident of small bushes & grass in which I threw it down, carelessly.

I did not wish to have any one put to the trouble of taking such a long drive to go for it. It is an easy walk of one hour from W. Q. station to the place where I left the box.

Very truly yours

Edwin Foxon

Is the enclosed leafy branchlet the one which Judge Churchill asked about the Sunday?

Faxon, Edwin. 1894. "Faxon, Edwin Oct. 15, 1894." Walter Deane correspondence –.

View This Item Online: <https://www.biodiversitylibrary.org/item/159797>

Permalink: <https://www.biodiversitylibrary.org/partpdf/326491>

Holding Institution

Harvard University Botany Libraries

Sponsored by

IMLS

Copyright & Reuse

Copyright Status: Public domain. The BHL considers that this work is no longer under copyright protection.

This document was created from content at the Biodiversity Heritage Library, the world's largest open access digital library for biodiversity literature and archives. Visit BHL at <https://www.biodiversitylibrary.org>.