

Cambridge Mass. July 13th. 1908

My dear Mr. Deane,

Please accept my thanks for your permission to copy this interesting letter of Blaschka's which I now return. I hope that it will reach you safely.

I have written Blaschka and in such a manner as to treat of the points he takes up, but without referring specifically to your letter. I hope that he will soon be quieted by my communication.

Mrs. Goodale joins me in sending to you and Mrs. Deane love and all good wishes. And we desire to add kind remembrances to all of our Shelburne friends.

Yours faithfully
E. L. Goodale
