GRAY HERBARIUM OF HARVARD UNIVERSITY,

BOTANIC GARDEN, CAMBRIDGE, MASS., 9th April, 1895,

Dear Mr. Davenport:

Herewith I send the recommendations of which I have spoken. They have been prepared with much care and after considerable discussion in our department. They are started with the cordial backing of Profs. Goodale, Farlow, Thaxter, and myself, and in answer to letters containing a preliminary statement I have received favorable replies from Eaton, Chapman

I find that we are not going to have copies enough to go around so I am going to ask you among some others who live near if you will kindly return the copy of the resolutions sent. Of course when published others will be sent out.

J. Macann, J. M. Macann, Bebb, L. H. Bailey, Deane, Penhallow Scribner, Brainerd and Setchell.

I hope you will be able to endorse the recommendations and give us thus your warm support. If so, kindly send me your name at once as, the more we have at the outset the more we can cover the wavering.

Hastily but cordially yours

B. L. Robinson

We are hoping to secure about thirty first rate men.

Kindly regard the matter still as confidential for the present.
