

Washington D.C.

Nov. 17th 1892

My dear Mr. Davenport:

Your letter of Nov. 14th is at hand.
I am all wrong about that matter. I think your publication is all right. When your <sup>1st</sup> letter came I handed it to Mr. Clark and asked her to look it up. She brought me the paper and asked me if I considered that "note" the publication of Dr. Staffrein Underwood which I promptly answered that I did not think so. Your list I did not notice when the real publication is made.

You must have thought strange of my claiming that this was. not publication. Both the species & var.
should have been in our list.

Miss Black had really made <sup>acced</sup> for H. Steffensen var. Mexicana but had over-looked the publication of the species which is a little obscure, but the "in list" settles this.

I believe we are now agreed
about this matter?

Yours very truly
J. M. Rose
