

New Haven, Nov. 14. '96

My dear Gray:

I have your note and will erase the name of the delinquent Journal as you suggest.

I find myself in quite good condition after my Cambridge visit - much better than I dared to hope. The celebration was excellent & grand in all respects, and I enjoyed it far beyond my expectation. Cambridge is a far ahead of us in means & equipment, and success to it I say. -

With very kind regard to her Gray, to whom Mrs
D. sends her love -

As ever

Cordially yours
James D. Dana.

Dana, James Dwight. 1886. "Dana, James Dwight Nov. 14, 1886." James Dwight Dana letters –.
