

Columbus Ohio Nov. 22/49

Dear Gray - Yours just received - very glad to hear Mr Gould can oblige me in the matter of the Taylor Hart.

I should like to have access to the entire Mus & Hepat. herbarium - either in the way of purchase or loan as he may be able. Now I wish you to give this matter your personal attention - assist in unpacking, assorting & packing up, so that the right parcels may be sent - You have more experience in such things, besides it will relieve him from a troublesome job. - Don't be in one of your driving humors - take time & do it thoroughly & nicely. The earliest too it is done the better & I am continually in want of time for Remperioration —

— Shall have many fine new things from Tierra del Fuego notwithstanding the it was pretty well raked by the English & French Expeditions —

I see nothing in the Oakes Catalogue I want except as you suggest Hooker's Thayer memoria — Bag it for me —

I must be owing for Engraving printing &c &c Send me Amt & I will remit in one sum including the Thayer $70. — a line from your home —

Very truly yours

W. Sullivant

too it's done the better & I am continually in want of them for Remissions shall have many fine new things from Vienna &c Fugro & understand the Frigg pretty well spoken by the English &
