March 12th 1856

Dear Gray

I send by today's express 8th and last drawing.

all the drawings have now been sent - and the proofs returned of 1 + 2. the only ones I have used. —

Will not the engraving delay the publication longer than you anticipated. — How much time yet can I have ^{for} my text?

Hypotaenae as I have said is ready for the printer — unless for advance But there is continually something turning up that requires long and tedious boring with the microscope that consumes time awfully

Very cordially
Yours

Wm S. Ballou
