

New York. March 8th 1832

My dear friend -

Your letter of Sunday has just come to hand. The Salt Lake Monstrosity. I called Mr. Rams-bury. It is figured at Pl. VI. of my little article.

When Mr. Wright. was finished?
I hope you will send me the remaining sheets soon. Merriam is working spidiously. & begging to do something for me. When he is done attending lectures I shall have none of his time. He will send you a letter soon.

Our Commencement takes place on Thursday next of this week. & then the College will be closed for the season. - Merriam will remain, however. - I keep proportion of the little room

Holton will expect to visit New Grenada - ~~He~~ If he goes there will be a fine opportunity for obtaining plants from a region little known.

In haste your ever

J. Torrey

Torrey, John. 1852. "Torrey, John Mar 8, 1852." John Torrey letters –.
