

but I may be able to bargain for them in a week or two -

We are all as usual at No. 96 - I send much love to you & yours.

Faithfully your friend,

I. Fonesy

New York, Feb 5th 1861

Dear friend

I am troubled about that Copenhagen Journal - having looked for it without success. My library is so small of the possible places in which it could be concealed are so few, that it seems as if I must have returned it. Pray write to me at once what kind of a volume or pamphlet it was - & when it was lent to me. I must have had it before the Mex.-Boundary Bkt. was printed - which is more than two years ago. I thought it might have got bound up in one of my volumes of pamphlets - but I have had no binding done for about three years - Nevertheless I looked over the last batch of of those volumes, & found it not.

I will leave no hole or corner un-searched till it is either found, or proved not to be in my possession.
Of course I could not have lent it as that would have been wrong without your consent & besides no one but ourselves would want it.

I am sorry indeed, that you have sustained a painful injury.
You don't tell us how the end of your thumb was bitten off - perhaps that is as much as you choose to say about it. Maggy and her love of sympathy - if - as she says, there is enough of you left to feel.
She says that now you must allow that Jane is really & literally gone ~~better~~ half. I would not joke about your mishap had you not told us you were over the worst of it.

The news from the South looks better this morning. At least it appears as if Virginia would not secede.
If actual war can be kept off for 4 weeks longer, the danger will over -

As I can not leave here until about the end of the month, it may be as well to send the St. Bras. & such matter ^{now} accumulated in my pigeon hole, - by express. Let me know what are the charges & I will remit.
As to those plates of Mex. B. Bkt.
I do not see my way clear yet,
