

LIST OF GENERIC TERMS PROPOSED FOR BIRDS DURING
THE YEARS 1890 TO 1900, INCLUSIVE, TO WHICH ARE ADDED NAMES OMITTED BY WATERHOUSE IN HIS
"INDEX GENERUM AVIUM."

By CHARLES W. RICHMOND,
Assistant Curator, Division of Birds.

Mr. F. H. Waterhouse's Index Generum Avium, comprising a list of the generic and subgeneric terms proposed in the class Aves from the time of Linnæus down to the summer of 1889, is a work of much value to the systematic ornithologist, and one of unusual accuracy—every reference, with a half dozen exceptions, having been verified by its author.

The continued activity of workers in this branch of zoology during the past decade, both in the introduction of new names and the resurrection of old and forgotten ones, has rendered necessary the publication of a supplementary list. In compiling such a list the present writer has made use of a card catalogue¹ now in course of preparation in the Division of Birds of the United States National Museum, which contains references to most of the genera and species described in recent years, as well as to many of earlier date.

Out of about 675 names enumerated in the following pages 475 have been instituted as new since the appearance of the Index; the remainder consist of terms overlooked by Waterhouse, or used by him either without proper citation or as homonyms of other genera (e. g., Piculus). No effort has been made to swell the list of names omitted in the Index, but the fact that nearly two hundred names² here given were used ¹This card catalogue was begun in 1889 and has been carried along more or less actively since 1893. It now contains over twenty thousand entries, and is intended eventually to contain a reference to every described avian genus and species, including both living and fossil forms. In the case of species the type locality, collector, date, sex, and location of the type specimen are given; on generic cards are indicated the class of data followed in the ensuing list.

²Not including terms based on "bird tracks," of which there are numbers, such as Ambloonyx, Ancyropus, Argozoum, Batrachopus, Brontozoum, Calopus, Eubrontes, Fulicopus, Grallator, Harpedactylus, Ornithopus, Palamopus, Platypterna, Plectropus, Sauropus, Sillimanius, Steropoides, Triænopus, Tridentipes, and Typopus, all proposed by Hitchcock.

prior to 1889, and overlooked in that work, shows that much patient research remains to be done before a complete list of the generic names of birds may be attempted.

In order to enhance the usefulness of the present list the type species of each genus has been added, as well as various cross references of interest. The family in which each genus belongs is indicated, and, it is believed, the differentiation of fossil genera (by means of a †) will also prove of value. To facilitate the finding of genera in any particular family a list of genera arranged alphabetically under families has been appended.

For various names and references, which would otherwise have been overlooked, the writer is under obligations to Drs. L. Stejneger, and T. S. Palmer, and Mr. H. C. Oberholser.

Type, Anas scutulata S. Müller [Anatidæ.]

"Ἀσαρκος, lean; ὄρνις, bird.

Ascalaphia ISID. GEOFFROY ST.-HILAIRE, L'Écho du Monde Savant, III, 1837, p. 4.

Type, Ascalaphia savignii Isid. Geoffroy St.-Hilaire.

[Bubonidæ.]

"Ἀσκάλαφος, a bird supposed to be an owl.

Aspatha SHARPE, Catal. Birds Brit. Mus., XVIII, 1892, p. 331.

Type, Prionites gularis Lafresnaye [Momotidæ.]

"Ἀ, without; σπάθη, a blade.

† Asthenopterus AMEGHINO, Revista Argentina Hist. Nat., I, 1891, p. 443.

New name for Lagopterus Moreno and Mercerat, preoccupied.

[Falconidæ.]

"Ἀσθενής, weak; πτερόν, wing.

Atalochrous ELLIOT, Ibis, ser. 3, VI, Oct., 1876, p. 464.

Type, Malimbus racheliae Cassin [Ploceidæ.]

(A subgenus of Malimbus.)

"Ἀταλός, tender, delicate; χρῶς, color.

Atopornis REICHENOW and NEUMANN, Ornith. Monatsb., III, May, 1895, p. 74.

Type, Atopornis [= Nigrita] diabolicus Reichenow and Neumann [Muscicapidæ (= Ploceidæ).]

"Ἀτοπος, unusual, out of place; ὄρνις, bird.

† Badiostes AMEGHINO, Bol. Inst. Geogr. Argentino, XV, 1895, p. 600.

Type, Badiostes patagonicus Ameghino [Strigidæ.]

† Barornis MARSH, Amer. Journ. Sci., ser. 3, XLVIII, Oct., 1894, p. 344.

Type, Barornis regens Marsh [Incertæ sedis.]

Βαρύς, heavy; ὄρνις, bird.

Bathmysyrma REICHENOW, Ornith. Monatsb., V, Oct., 1897, p. 161.

Type, Bathmysyrma rufum Reichenow [Muscicapidæ.]

Βαθμός, a step; σύρμα, a trailing robe, something trailed along.

Bathmocercus REICHENOW, Ornith. Monatsb., III, July, 1895, p. 113.

Type, Bathmocercus rufus Reichenow [Timaliidæ.]

Βαθμός, a step; κέρκος, tail.

Bellona MULSANT and VERREAUX, Mém. Soc. Imp. Sci. Nat. Cherbourg, XII, 1866, p. 219.

Type, Trochilus cristatus Linnæus [Trochilidæ.]

Named for Bellona, a goddess of war.

† Belornis MILNE-EDWARDS, Bull. Brit. Orn. Club, I, July 4, 1893, p. liv.

New name for Tachyornis Milne-Edwards, preoccupied.

[Incertæ sedis.]

Βέλος, an arrow, dart; ὄρνις, bird.

Blacops RICHMOND, Auk, XVI, Apr., 1899, p. 186.

New name for Blax Reichenow, preoccupied (= Verreauxia Hartlaub) -----[Picidæ.]

Blax (βλάξ, lazy); ὤψ.

Blax REICHENOW, Ornith. Monatsb., II, Aug., 1894, p. 126.

Type, Blax gymnophthalmus Reichenow (see Blacops).

[Capitonidæ (= Picidæ).]

Βλάξ, lazy, sluggish.

Bleda BONAPARTE, Revue et Mag. de Zool., Feb., 1857, p. 50.

Type, Dasycephala syndactyla Swainson -----[Timaliidæ.]

Named for Bleda, brother of Attila.

Bocagia SHELLEY, Bull. Brit. Orn. Club, III, May 26, 1894, p. xliii.

Type, Telephonus minutus Hartlaub (first species mentioned) (see Antichromus) -----[Laniidæ.]

Named for Prof. José Vicente Barboza du Bocage.

Bolbopsittacus SALVADORI, Catal. Birds Brit. Mus., XX, 1891, p. 503.

Type, Psittacus lunulatus Scopoli -----[Psittacidæ.]

Βολβός, a bulb; ψίττακος, a parrot.

Bonapartia BÜTTIKOFER, Notes Leyden Mus., XVIII, July 15, 1896, p. 58.

New name for Gymnocrotaphus Büttikofer, preoccupied.

[Timaliidæ.]

Named for Charles-Lucien-Jules-Laurent Bonaparte.

Bostrycholophus BÜTTIKOFER, Notes Leyden Mus., XVIII, July 15, 1896, p. 58.

New name for Centrolophus Büttikofer, preoccupied.

[Pycnonotidæ.]

Βόστρυχος, a curl; λόφος, crest.

Bowdleria ROTHSCILD, Novitates Zoologicae, III, Dec. 29, 1896, p. 539.

Type, New Zealand group of Sphenæacus -----[Timaliidæ.]

Named for Dr. R. Bowdler Sharpe.

Brachycope REICHENOW, Journ. für Ornithologie, April, 1900, p. 249.

Type, Brachycope anomala Reichenow -----[Ploceidæ.]

Brachypteryx OWEN, Descr. Catal. Osteol. Series Mus. Roy. College of Surgeons, I, 1853, p. 238.

Type, Rallus australis Sparrman -----[Rallidæ.]

Brachypus SWAINSON, Zool. Journ., I, Oct., 1824, p. 305.

Type, "Le Curouge" Levillant (= Turdus cafer Linnæus).

[Pycnonotidæ.]

Βραχύς, short; πούς, foot.

Brachyryncus de SELYS-LONGCHAMPS, in Vander Maelen's Dict. Géogr.

Prov. Liège, 1831, Appendice, p. 36.

Type, Parus caudatus (= Mecistura rosea Blyth) -----[Paridæ.]

Βραχύς, short; ῥύγχος, beak.

Brachyspiza RIDGWAY, Auk, XV, July (May 13), 1898, p. 224.

Type, Fringilla capensis P. L. S. Müller ----- [Fringillidæ.]

Βραχύς, short; σπιζα, a finch.

Brewsteria MAYNARD, Birds Eastern North Amer., ed. 2, Pt. 40, 1896, p. 691.

Type, Falco ferrugineus Lichtenstein ----- [Falconidæ.]

Named for Mr. William Brewster.

† Brontornis MORENO and MERCERAT, Anales Mus. La Plata (Paleon. Argen., I), 1891, p. 37.

Type, Brontornis burmeisteri Moreno and Mercerat.

[Stereornithes.]

Βροντή, thunder; ὄρνις, bird.

Buleites GISTEL, Naturgesch. des Thierreichs für höhere Schulen, 1848, p. xi.

New name for Stenorhynchus Gould ----- [Mimidæ.]

Βουλευτής, one who sits in council, a senator.

Calamodromus REICHENOW, in Heine and Reichenow, Nomencl. Mus. Hein. Orn., 1890, p. 322.

New name for Rougetius Bonaparte, on grounds of purism.

Κάλαμος, a reed; δρόμος, a course, race.

Calastrapia SHARPE, Monogr. Paradiseidæ, Part VIII, 1898, p. xiii.

Type, Astrapia splendidissima Rothschild ----- [Paradiseidæ.]

Καλός, beautiful; + Astrapia (ἀστράπιος, of lightning).

Callaeops GRANT, Bull. Brit. Orn. Club, IV, Jan. 29, 1895, p. xviii.

Type, Callaeops periophthalmica Grant ----- [Muscicapidæ.]

Κάλλαιον, a cock's comb; ὤψ, eye.

† Callornis AMEGHINO, Bol. Inst. Geogr. Argentino, XV, 1895, p. 574.

Type, Callornis giganteus Ameghino ----- [Stereornithes.]

Κάλλος, beauty; ὄρνις, bird.

Calobamon HEINE, in Heine and Reichenow, Nomencl. Mus. Hein. Orn., 1890, p. 123.

New name for Pittasoma Cassin, on grounds of purism.

[Formicariidæ.]

Καλός, beautiful; βᾶμα (βῆμα), a step, pace.

Calopelia SALVADORI, Catal. Birds Brit. Mus., XXI, 1893, p. 522.

Type, Columba puella Schlegel ----- [Peristeridæ.]

Καλός, beautiful; πέλεια, a dove.

Calopezus RIDGWAY, Proc. Biol. Soc. Wash., II, Apr. 10, 1884, p. 97.

New name for Calodromas Sclater and Salvin, preoccupied.

[Tinamidæ.]

Καλός, beautiful; πεζός, walking.

Calvifrons DAUDIN, Annales du Mus. d'Hist. Nat., III, 1804, p. 146.

Type, Chauvard (= Corvus calvus Linnæus) (see Perissocephalus) ----- [Cotingidæ.]

Calvus, bald, hairless; frons, forehead.

- †Camaskelus AYMARD, Congrès Scientifique de France, 1856, I, pp. 233, 267.
 Type, Camaskelus palustris Aymard ----- [Charadriiformes.]
Κάμαξ, a pole, stake; σκέλος, the leg.
- Caprornis KAUP, in Jardine's Contrib. Orn. for 1849, p. 112 (note).
 Type, Vultur pileatus Burchell ----- [Vulturidæ.]
- Carnifex SUNDEVALL, K. Vet.-Akad. Handl. (1835), 1836, p. 78.
 Type, Ampelis carnifex Linnæus ----- [Cotingidæ.]
Carnifex, a public executioner.
- Cassidix BONAPARTE, Conspectus Generum Avium, I, 1849, p. 90.
 Type, Buceros cassidix Temminck (first species mentioned).
[Bucerotidæ.]
- Cassida*, cassis, a helmet.
- Castanolimnas SHARPE, Bull. Brit. Orn. Club., I, Jan. 26, 1893, p. xxviii.

¹This work is usually cited "Descr. mam. et ois.," or "Descr. mam. et ois. réc. découv.," but is correctly quoted as above. It appeared as the last (20th) volume of the Lévêque edition of Buffon, and was published in April, 1847. It was also issued as a separate work, under the title "Description de mammifères et d'oiseaux récemment découverts," etc., with the same ostensible date, and later formed the second part of Tome VII of the Didier edition, in 10 volumes, also bearing date of 1847. All were printed from the same type, the Didier edition even preserving the Lévêque signature marks.
