My dear Deane:

Thank you very very much for your good letter. They are all pretty well except Mrs. Rose.
She is just heartbroken over the death of our dear boy. She was so proud of him & loved him so.

We were out to his grave on Monday and found the flowers almost as beautiful as when we left them 10 days before! The snow seemed to have kept them just at the right temperature.

I am sending you the report made by the Principal of the Western High School. Will you please return it to me.

Martha has returned to Oxford Ohio &
Joseph to Liberty.

Give our love to Mrs. Deane

Your friend,
J. Rose
